RE: Initiation of new shipper review – bonding option on solid urea from the Russian Federation (A-462-101)

1. Commerce is conducting a new shipper administrative review of the antidumping duty order on solid urea from the Russian Federation for the period 07/01/2014 through 06/30/2015 (A-462-101).
2. The notice of initiation for this review was published in the Federal Register on 08/31/2015 (80 FR 52446).
3. For shipments of solid urea from the Russian Federation from the exporter/producer combination identified below which were exported and produced and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after 08/31/2015, a bond or other security deposit is permitted at the importer's option:

Exporter: Joint Stock Company PhosAgro-Cherepovets

Producer: Joint Stock Company PhosAgro-Cherepovets

Case number: A-462-101-002

Deposit rate: 64.93 %

The option to post a bond or other security deposit may only be made available to the producer and/or exporter identified above in the combination identified above. 4. In accordance with T.D. 85-145, at the discretion of CBP, CBP officers may accept either a single-entry basic importation and entry bond or a continuous basic importation and entry bond only if the amount of the estimated antidumping duty is less than five percent ad valorem (or the equivalent). Otherwise, where the importer has the option to post a bond for estimated antidumping duties, CBP officers must require a single-entry basic importation and entry bond pursuant to T.D. 85-145. You are instructed to adhere to the requirements of T.D. 85-145 with respect to these bonding requirements.

5. Unless instructed otherwise, for imports from companies identified in case reference files in ACE, the applicable cash deposit rate for estimated antidumping duties is the rate provided therein.
6. The option of a bond in lieu of a cash deposit will remain in effect for imports of subject merchandise exported and produced by the entity identified in paragraph 3, in the combination identified in paragraph 3 until further notice.
